

PRETORIA BOYS HIGH SCHOOL

PBHS DAYBOY ADMISSION POLICY

Based inter alia on the number of Educators, the School's facilities and the choice of subjects offered at the school, the School shall admit no more than 1550 students at any time. Grade 8 classes shall be no bigger than 30 students per class.

The Language of Instruction at the School shall be English with the obvious exception of other languages offered as Additional Languages. It is in the best interests of the student that they are able to cope in an English medium environment.

Priority will be given to students whose parents/legal guardians (as recognised by SA law):

- comply in full with the Admission Procedure, submitting all documentation on time, and
- who permanently reside in the area for which the School is the nearest suitable school.¹

If space permits, following the application of these criteria, preference will be given to students who:

- have specialised skills or talents that the School has the potential to develop, or
- who have strong academic ability to be able to cope with the high standards expected at the School, or
- are able to cope in a traditional boys school environment.

Preference will also be given to those who

- have siblings who are either at the School or who are Old Boys of the School, or
- have a father who is an Old Boy of the school.
